

Society of Internet Platforms

28-29 October 2021.

organized by the Institute of the Information Society at the University of Public Service

Venue: University of Public Service, Main building (Ludovika tér 2, Budapest, HU-1083)
&
ONLINE

Thursday

Welcome coffee

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|--|
| 13:25 | Bernát Török - Director of the Institute of the Information Society at UPS | Welcome |
| 13.30 | András Koltay - Rector, University of Public Service | Introduction and welcoming thoughts – a brief overview of social media regulation in the light of freedom of expression |
| 14.00 | Jack Balkin - Knight Professor of Constitutional Law, founder and director of the Information Society Project of Yale Law School
(online) | Speech Platforms – keynote |
| 15.00 | Luboš Kukliš – Chair, European Platform of Regulatory Authorities | The User, the Platform and the Regulator: The Future of Content Regulation in a Triangular Shape |
| 15.30-15.45 | Q+A | |
| Coffee break (15.45-16.15) | | |
| 16.15 | Peter Coe – University of Reading, School of Law
(online) | The Potential Free Speech Implications of the United Kingdom’s Draft Online Safety Bill and the Regulation of ‘Online Harms’ |
| 16.45 | Uta Kohl - Professor of Commercial Law, Southampton Law School | Platform Liabilities on Hate Speech – A Compromise between the First Amendment and European Dignity Concerns? |
| 17.15 | Anett Pogácsás – Associate Professor, Pázmány Péter Catholic University | Internet Folklore and its Impact on Free Speech |
| 17.45 | Q+A | |

END OF DAY 1

Friday

Welcome coffee

- 9.30 Zsolt Zódi – Senior Research Fellow, University of Public Service Platform as a Coordination Mechanism and its Consequences to the Legal Regulation
- 10.00 Anikó Grad-Gyenge – Professor, Budapest University of Technology and Economics Copyright in the world of platforms
- 10.30 David Mangan - Associate Professor, Maynooth University; Adjunct Professor, Osgoode Hall Law School Digitalization of work: the threshold is the place to pause
- 11.00 Mark D. Cole – Full Professor, Université de Luxembourg After the Rise of the Platform Economy the Rise of Platform Regulation? An evaluation of European Union and Council of Europe Approaches to New Regulatory Frameworks

11.30-11.45 Q+A

Lunch break (11.45-13.00)

- 13.00 Bernát Török – Associate Professor, University of Public Service How to regulate platforms: the downside of technology-focused horizontal rules
- 13.30 Joanna Kulesza - Assistant Professor of International Public Law, University of Lodz Self-regulation, co-regulation or no regulation? On norms and principles in cyberspace
- 14.00 Oreste Pollicino - Professor of Constitutional Law, Bocconi University Digital Constitutionalism in action: which is the future of Rule of Law in the digital age?

14.30-14.45 Q+A

Coffee break (14.45-15.00)

- 15.00-16.00 Lawrence Lessig - Roy L. Furman Professor of Law and Leadership, Harvard Law School How Platforms Change Democracies — for the worse - closing speech

16.00 Q+A

END OF EVENT