

Legal technology and its impact on the access to justice, society, and the legal industry

2022. június 23., csütörtök

PANEL 1: LEGALTECH IN THE SERVICE OF ACCESS TO JUSTICE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION (8:50 - 16:40)

time	[id] title	presenter
8:50	[1] Introductory remarks, greetings	DELI, Gergely
9:00	[2] Future Justice: some impacts of legal technology on the administration of justice.	REILING, Dory
9:25	[3] A brief history of LegalTech	JACOB, Kai
9:50	[5] Human factors in dispute resolutions - can artificial intelligence and the use of smart contracts help resolve disputes?	SZOSTEK, Darius PRABUCKI, Rafał Tomasz
10:15	Q&A;
10:40	Coffee break
11:05	[6] Electronic communication with the court considering the traditional rules of civil procedure – on the example of the Polish legal regulations	KACZMAREK-TEMPLIN, Berenika
11:30	[12] Artificial Intelligence in criminal justice: recent experience from Malaysia	SZENTGÁLI-TÓTH, Boldizsár
11:45	[13] Protecting consumers by design	DÖMÖTÖRFY, Borbála Tünde FIRNIKSZ, Judit
12:00	Q&A;
12:25	Lunch break
13:25	[14] Do androids dream about biased judges? – Self-fulfilling prophecies in litigation prediction by AI	VAJDA, János
13:40	[15] Lawtech as a means of legal empowerment – the empirical lessons learned from a legal aid program	HORVÁTH, Valéria Eszter
13:55	[16] Legal design for GDPR compliance	KIS KELEMEN, Bence KAPPEL, Gergely
14:10	Q&A;
14:35	Coffee break
14:55	[17] Robolawyers and legal chatbot services	NECZ, Dániel
15:10	[18] Online dispute resolution systems. A real alternative of courts?	PÁLFI, Dóra
15:25	[4] The incorporation of ICT's in the Chilean and Latin-American civil justice systems. Analysis from an access to justice and judicial reform perspectives	LILLO, Ricardo
15:45	Q&A;	