100th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations Between Chile and Hungary

Roundtable Participants

Emőke Horváth is a historian and Latin Americanist, Associate Professor at the Institute of History at Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary, and head of the university's Latin America Research Group. She earned her degree and PhD from Eötvös Loránd University, pursued doctoral studies at the University of Valladolid, and received a prestigious State Eötvös Scholarship to conduct dissertation research at King's College London, under the supervision of Janet Nelson. Between 2005 and 2010, she led three European Union-funded academic programs — CLIOHRES.net, CLIOHNET2, and CLIOH-WORLD — on behalf of the University of Miskolc, serving as a board member during the final two years. Her primary research interests include the history of Cuba during the Cold War, the role of the Church following the Cuban Revolution, and Hungarian Chilean relations during the same period. More recently, her work has focused on the history of Hungarian Latin American foreign relations, with special attention to Chile and Cuba. She has conducted archival research in Hungary, Chile, and Cuba. She has taught at several international universities, including Stockholm, Siegen, Adana, and Oradea, and is a regular presenter at both national and international academic conferences. She is an author of numerous books and studies on Latin American topics. She serves on the editorial board of Ad Americam. She is also the series editor of Bibliotheca Americana at L'Harmattan Publishing and serves on the editorial board of the Journal of American Studies, published by Jagiellonian University.

Gabriella Thomázy holds a PhD in Military Sciences with an educational background in Sociology, Human Resource Management, and Education. She completed her doctoral studies at the Doctoral School of Military Sciences at the University of Public Service, specializing in Security Studies. She is currently a Senior Lecturer at the Department of International Relations and Diplomacy at Ludovika University of Public Service in Budapest. She lived in Chile for almost ten years, where she studied benefit management at the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile and worked in various professional roles. During her time in Chile, she actively participated in several projects of the Hungarian Embassy in Santiago. She remains an active member of the Hungarian community there. Her research focuses on migration, South America, and security studies. She has presented her work at numerous conferences in Hungary and abroad (including Colombia, Finland, and Spain) and has been an invited speaker and guest lecturer at several universities, including Eötvös Loránd University (Hungary), Corvinus University of Budapest (Hungary), the University of Chile, and the Chilean Military Academy. She is a board member of the Security Policy Division of the Hungarian Association of Military Science.

SZAKOSZTÁLYÁNAK ÚJ TAGFELVÉTELÉRE

A Magyar Hadtudományi Társaság Biztonságpolitikai Szakosztálya bővíti a taglétszámát. Várja a jelentkezését mindazoknak, akiket érdekel a stratégiai, védelmi vagy biztonsággal kapcsolatos tanulmányok, illetve az ehhez köthető szakmai közösség és a tudományos munka. Íme, néhány ok amiért érdemes megfontolni a belépést a szakosztályba:

-  1. Hozzáférés egy szakmai hálózathoz
-  2. Kutatási és publikációs lehetőségek
-  3. Befolyás a politikára és a közbeszédre
-  4. Kortárs biztonsági kérdések tanulmányozása
-  5. Szakmai fejlődés
-  6. Intézményi elismerés

HUNGARIAN – IRANIAN FRIENDSHIP SOCIETY

MAGYAR – IRÁNI BARÁTI TÁRSASÁG

A Magyar – Iráni Baráti Társaság 1992-ben alakult a két ország társadalmi, kulturális és tudományos kapcsolatainak feltárása, ápolása, elmélyítése és továbbfejlesztése érdekében. A társaság várja mindazok jelentkezését, akiket érdekel az iráni kultúra, művészet és a történelem.
