Stronger UN, better world?

To save future's generations from the horrors of war. The UN was established with this aim. However, peace-keeping is not mentioned in the Charter, the organization's activity is highlighted on this field. The UN is the only organization, which expanded its authority to the whole world and is being the most determining actor of crisis management.

Which are the most recent challenges of the organization? How can the UN finance the robust missions? Is the UN's activity relevant?

This dissertation introduces the UN's history, and deals with answering the questions above.
