

In Service of the Nation

The Doctorates' Council of the National University of Public Service is pleased to inform the Ph.D. and graduate students that on 8th of January 2021 as part of our traditions we will organize the so-called

In Service of the Nation

Ph.D. conference.

The conference primarily aims to present scientific researches of Ph.D. students connected to state and public services but it also gives floor for any researches presented in Hungarian or in English.

Contributors:

- National Association of PhD students in law enforcement
- Association of Hungarian Ph.D. and DLA Students, Department of Law-Enforcement

- Association of Hungarian Ph.D. and DLA Students, Department of Military Sciences
- Association of Hungarian Ph.D. and DLA Students, Department of Public Administration
- Hungarian Military Science Society Kápolnai Pauer István Youth Club

Information for performers:

Length of the presentations: 15 minutes

For registration, you must complete the enclosed registration link https://ludevent.uni-nke.hu/e/A_Haza_Szolgaltaban_Konferencia (indicate the preferred section) and attach an abstract or poster (in English or in Hungarian) according to the sample.

We are waiting for your questions in case of need on the following email: dok@uni-nke.hu.

Please note the organizers will not be able to accept registrations arriving after the given deadline!

Date of Conference:
8th January, 2021.
Venue:

Microsoft Teams

Important deadlines:

Registration and deadline for abstracts/posters:

December 11, 2020. 12.00 am

Date of Conference:

January 8, 2021. 09.00-18.00

Planned sections:

- Security policy
- Military History and Art of Warfare
- Public Administration and Law
- Disaster management
- Law-Enforcement and Security History
- Economy and Management Science
- COVID-19
- Gradual section
- Military Technology
- IT, Defense Electronics