Post Pandemic Politics: Perspectives and Possibilities

30th June 2021

Programme

time (GMT+0)
12:00-12:15	Opening remarks: András Koltay, rector (University of Public Service)
12:15-13:00	Keynote lecture Raphael Cohen-Almagor (University of Hull): Israel Facing COVID-19: Challenges, Problems and Successes
13:00-13:25	Ákos B. Gát (University of Public Service): The Covid-19 test of the European Union's policy on the rule of law
13:25-13:50	Jagmeet Singh Bawa & Gurphej Singh (Central University of Himachal Pradesh): Pandemic and Challenges for Democracy: A Study
13:50-14:00	coffee break
14:00-14:25	Mia Bloom (Georgia State University): Violent Extremists' Exploitation of COVID-19 Challenges to Governance and Stability
14:25-14:50	Mina Hosseini (University of Science and Culture, Tehran): A COVID- Competition Dilemma: legal and ethical challenges regarding the COVID-19 vaccine policies, during and after the crisis
14:50-15:15	István Hoffman (Centre of Social Sciences, HAS) & István Balázs (University of Debrecen): Administrative law in the time of corona(virus) – resilience and trust-building
15:15-15:40	Viktória Pató (University of Public Service): Europe's post covid digital future: the theory of a cloud federation
15:40-16:00	coffee break
16:00-16:25	Valentin V. Balanovskiy (Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University): From moral politics to legal civil society: Relevance of Leon Petrazhitsky and Boris Vysheslavtsev heritage through the COVID-prism
16:25-16:50	Oana Şerban (University of Bucharest): The Biopolitical Turn of the Post-COVID world: Leftist and Neoliberal Insights of Puzzling Biopolitics
16:50-17:15	Agostino Cera (University of Basilicata): The Pandemic Capital